

2026 Nominating Committee Report

The Nominating Committee of Intercounty Electric Cooperative Association met on Wednesday, April 9, 2026, at the Cooperative's headquarters in Licking, Missouri, with legal counsel Christiaan Horton calling the meeting to order. A quorum was present, representing communities throughout the service area.

The Committee organized by electing Julius Fraley as Chairperson and Carla Clayton as Secretary. In accordance with the Cooperative's bylaws, the Committee reviewed applications and conducted interviews with five candidates seeking nomination for three Board of Director seats open for election in the North, Central, and South Districts.

Following completion of all interviews, the Committee met in executive session to carefully consider candidate qualifications, submitted materials, and interview responses. After due deliberation, the Committee selected the following nominees for the 2026 Board of Directors election, subject to each candidate's continued eligibility under Cooperative bylaws and policies. One Director will be elected from each district.
