TOP THREE SELECTION

The essays will be judged by a panel of judges selected by the instructor or other school administration.

The deadline for submitting the top three essays to IECA is March 1st. In order to have the essays judged and the top three submitted by that date, your instructor has set your deadline as

FINAL JUDGING

The three finalists from each school along with their parents and instructors are invited to the final judging on Saturday, March 26, 2022. Judging will be held at the Intercounty Auditorium in Licking.

Three judges will interview each student and select a first place winner for each school based upon responses to questions relating to rural electric cooperatives.

Questions and answers used in the final judging are furnished to the top three students at each school. Six questions from the Q & A booklet are selected by the judges for each student to answer.

Each question is worth five points for a total potential score of 30. Other points will be assigned as follows: personality 20, speaking ability 15, poise 10, presenting information beyond the scope of the question 10 and appearance 15. A minimum score of 75 is required to win the trip to Washington, D.C.

Judging will take approximately 15 minutes for each contestant. The order of finish will be posted shortly after each high school group has been judged.
